

Sample Interview Questions

1. What are the daily routines and responsibilities of your occupation?
2. What specific education, training or employment experience is necessary or valuable for this occupation?
3. If you could go back in time on your career path, would you choose this type of work again? Why or why not?
4. What other work or volunteer roles did you progress through to reach your present position?
5. What opportunities are there to advance or move laterally in this occupation?
6. What qualities, skills and abilities do you possess that help you to be successful in your occupation?
7. What types of courses, continuing education, or professional development is necessary to keep your knowledge and skills current?
8. Many occupations may include some mundane duties or less than ideal working conditions. What are some of the duties or working conditions that you dislike about this occupation?
9. What is the salary for this occupation? Do you receive any additional benefits? For example: holidays, potential for overtime, etc.?
10. Can you recommend anyone else who could assist my research of this occupation?