

Worksheet A

Find Your Fit Event

Grades 5 – Career-Life Connections (CLC)

Worksheet A: Find Your Fit Event

Name: _____

Based on your experience at the Find Your Fit event, conduct some research on the two most interesting occupations that you saw showcased.

Record your findings on the sheet below. Use the WorkBC links related to careers and occupations.

- Explore Careers – Search by keyword.
- Explore Careers – Search by A-Z.
- Career Search Tool – Search by filters such as region, education and occupational interest.
- Career Trek Skills – Learn the skills needed for each career.

Exploring Occupations that may have a fit for you.

Category	Occupation One	Occupation Two
Occupational Name
Overview: Describe occupation and where people work.
Describe: What you liked about the occupation you observed experienced.
Earnings: Note annual median salary and hourly wage range. Find this information in WorkBC Career Profiles.
Work-related skills: List five skills that you saw or experienced at the Find Your Fit event.
Duties: List four or five duties.
Work environment: Describe the working conditions.
Workforce and employment statistics: Describe some of the workforce characteristics, which industries employ this occupation and three regions of B.C. where this occupation most likely exists.

Job requirements: List the education, training and/or qualifications needed and applicable skills.
Subject areas and training resources: Name some of the public institutions where training is offered, how long the training is and if co-operative education or apprenticeship is available.
Career paths: Describe the options to advance or move laterally in this field.
Employment outlook: What are the job prospects for this occupation? Is there high or low demand for this occupation?
Industry insights: List trends and impacts on the occupation (if available).
Add: Other relevant information or additional resources?
Reflection: Are either of the two occupations you researched something that you may want to pursue in the future? Explain. If so, why? If not, why?
Reflection: If you are interested in pursuing one of these occupations, what are your next steps in terms of gaining more experience or additional learning to help you master some of the skills required for the occupation?		